“We are no longer living during the times when the Government alone dictate the direction of the economy. Nowadays, we are beginning to see that a constructive partnership between the public and private sectors is crucial.”

Excerpts from
His Majesty’s speech
At the Malaysia Private Sector’s Luncheon,
Kuala Lumpur 27 August, 1997
A brief history of BRUFA ...

Traditionally, His Majesty’s government played the key role in the development of Brunei.

His Majesty’s “Titah” encouraged the private sector to take an active role in the development of the country.

A few Bruneian Freight Forwarders, got together and floated an idea to form an association.

BRUFA was formed on the 14th May, 1999.
BRUFA’s aim

“... to form regulated forwarding agents, to share the views, voice the opinions and collectively work with all the members, and with the Government and private sectors, in promoting the cargo forwarding industry, for the benefit of the nation and all the members.”
