Philippine Multimodal Transport and Logistics Association Inc. TRAINING & DEVELOPMENT CENTER

PMTLAI's Training and Education Committee was tasked to manage the affairs of its Training and Development Center. The objectives of which are the following:

1. Encourage and develop new entrants to the Transport and Logistics Industry.
2. Update and enhance the knowledge and skill of the Human Resources of the Transport and Logistics
3. Make PMTLAI training and education program accessible and affordable to its members
4. Provide a venue for sharing Industry updates and best practices through Fora, Conferences, Seminars and Workshop.

In its pursuit for global competitiveness and excellence, the Philippine Multimodal Transport and Logistics Association Inc. (PMTLAI) continuously addresses the various needs of its members as well as the public in various areas in operations, customer service and human resource development. With the appointment of industry practitioners and experts as instructors, the quality and effectiveness of its training programs are ensured. Revision and updating of its training materials are conducted on regular basis.

This opportunity made available by the Training and Development Center to airfreight forwarders, is PMTLAI's contribution in assisting our country in its attainment of economic development and progress.

Currently, the PMTLAI Training and Development Center is spearheaded by:

- Ms. Doris P. Torres – PMTLAI Chairman for Training and Development.

Updates on Training & Education:

PMTLAI Training & Education continued to provide and fulfill its objective by providing trainings, seminars, and workshop throughout the country amidst the pandemic.

It was indeed a challenging year on which big adjustment must be made.

With several restrictions being implemented by Philippine government during the pandemic caused by COVID-19 virus , a strict community quarantine has been established which limits the movement of people to attend any gatherings like trainings and seminars.

Providing trainings, seminars and workshop thru virtual platform has been the tool of PMTLAI Center to adopt with the new normal and to be able to continue its objective.
